

The Victorian Naturalist

Volume 141 (1) 2024

February

Editors: Gary Presland, Maria Gibson, Sue Forster, Michael McBain

Assistant Editor: Virgil Hubregtse

Research Report	Tenguella marginalba (Blainville, 1832) (Gastropoda: Muricidae): a marine snail now formally reported as established in far eastern Victoria by Platon Vafiadis, Robert Burn and Leon Altoff	4
Naturalist Notes	James Dawson's muurang and yaakar, by Robert Wallis	17
	Nocturnal visits of flying-foxes to an English Oak, by Matthew Mo and David R Waterhouse	21
	Photographic record of four Leaf Green Tree Frogs Ranoidea phyllochroa exhibiting brown colouration, by Matthew Mo, Nancy Auerbach and Dirk Hovorka	24
	Cane Toads trapped en masse in a building excavation site, by Matthew Mo	27
Book Review	The Woodlanders of Walden Hut, by Janice Newton, with Karen Phillips and Paula Herlihy	28
Guidelines for authors	30

ISSN 0042-5184

Front cover: Pteraeolidia ianthina (Blue Dragon nudibranch) at Gabo Island, Victoria (see p. 4); Photo Myra Kelly.