

The Victorian Naturalist

Volume 140 (6) 2023

December

Editors: Gary Presland, Maria Gibson, Sue Forster

Assistant Editor: Virgil Hubregtse

Contributions	‘Three sorts of kangaroo’: which species did James Hamilton recognise in south-western Victoria in the mid-19th century?, by Peter Menkhorst 160
	Victoria’s threatened bryophytes 2 — Acrobolbus setulosus (Mitt.) Briscoe, by Matt Dell 165
Naturalist Notes	Pontomyia (probably P. pacifica) flightless midge emergence in Southern New South Wales, by Alessandra J Metzler 170
	A Red-backed Toadlet Pseudophryne coriacea exploiting soil cracks for refugia, by Matthew Mo and Hugh Pitty 173
	Potter wasp Paralastor sp. and East Australian Masked Bee Hylaeus (Hylaeorhiza) nubilosus activity in a vespiary at Notting Hill, Victoria, by Virgil Hubregtse 175
Tribute	Barry John Cooper PhD FAIG FGSAust 23 September 1948 – 13 October 2023, by David Ananian-Cooper, Wendy Clark, Leigh Winsor and Gary Presland 179
Book Review	The life and times of the Murray Cod, by Paul Humphries, reviewed by Gary Presland 181
Thank you from the Editors 183

ISSN 0042-5184

Front cover: Great Grey Kangaroo Macropus major Shaw, from J Gould Kangaroos, p. 4 (see p. 160).
