

The Field Naturalists Club of Victoria Inc.

"Understanding Our Natural World"

Annual Biodiversity Symposium 2019

"Environmental Restoration or Green Deserts and Ecological Traps"

Venue: RSL Hall, 2 Diggers Way, Blackburn

Sat 12 & Sun 13 Oct, 9.00 am - 4.30 pm

The FNCV presents a two-day program covering aspects of the regeneration and rehabilitation of damaged ecosystems. Human activity is rapidly increasing the number and size of damaged areas. This two-day symposium will include 11 presentations on various aspects of regeneration and a tour of Westgate Park on the Sunday afternoon.

Note: MORNING TEA, LUNCH and AFTERNOON TEA included on Saturday. MORNING TEA only on Sunday. Spaces are limited for the field trip on Sunday. In the event of overbookings, preference will be given to people booking for the whole weekend.

Speakers include:	Dr Sapphire McMullan Fisher Prof Ian Rutherford John Harris Damien Cook Geordie Scott-Walker Dr Geoff Carr Dr Graeme Lorimer Dr Luke Barrett Darcy Duggan Dr David Cheal David Sparks
Topics include:	Mallee Habitat Restoration Reviving Degraded Wetlands Waterways and streams Saltmarshes Westgate Park Project Ecological Traps Grassland Rehabilitation The Role of Fungi in Revegetation Weed Management The nature of offsets And more

For more information or to register, contact:

Max Campbell 0409 143 538

FNCV Office 03 9877 9860 or admin@fncv.org.au